Media Release 16-09

For Immediate Release
August 24, 2016

Chief Mark Brink
Jackson Township Police Department

Jackson Township-

On July 14, 2016, Jackson Township Police Department received a report of an abduction at Stark State College. Reportee advised while at Stark State she was taken from the parking lot and driven to the Akron area where she reported she had been assaulted.

Through our investigation it has been determined the incident never occurred.

Jackson Township Police Department worked closely with Stark State College and Stark State Security Personnel.

The incident will be reviewed by the Stark County Prosecutor's Office for criminal charges resulting in filing a false police report.
