Public Speaks – None

Gonzalez introduced Judge Elum and Vivianne Duffrin representing the Sheriff's Office.

Judge Elum thanked the Board for allowing him to speak to the residents of Jackson Township about Issue 29. He explained that the Massillon Municipal Court covers the western half of Stark County. He said he is here to ask for the Board's and the community's support for Issue 29, the Criminal Justice and Administrative Justice Services Tax. He explained that it is a .5% tax that will be on the ballot and that "it is critical to the Massillon Municipal Court, to the Jackson Township Police Department and the safety of the community that this issue passes". Judge Elum complimented the Police and Fire Departments on doing an excellent job.

Judge Elum explained that "without the resources at the Stark County jail defendants will not do their community service, will not pay their fines and costs, will not do Quest treatment or project solutions." He said that come Friday afternoon any domestic violence arrests, felonious assault arrests or a weapons charge will not be booked into the Stark County jail for the weekend. He explained what would happen in more detail.

Vivianne Duffrin said she is the Human Resource Director and Labor Attorney for the Stark County Sheriff's Office. She asked that the Board consider a resolution in support of Issue 29. She said the "failure of Issue 29 would have dire consequences for the entire county". She said currently the Stark County jail has a bed capacity of 502 and due to prior reductions they are down to housing around 300 offenders. She said if Issue 29 does not pass, the Sheriff will have to issue lay-off notices and the jail would be down to a 122 bed maximum.

Ms. Duffrin said that "without a place to house the offenders, without consequences for the offenders and without sufficient prosecutors to prosecute the offenders the criminal justice system will come to a screeching halt". She pointed out that with 122 beds the jail would be able to house only the worst felons.

Chief Zink pointed out some of the other services used by the Jackson Township Police Department that are provided by the County Criminal Justice System.

Gonzalez pointed out that as Chief Deputy of the Canton Municipal Court he was project manager for the Criminal Justice Information System. He said that system allocates what happens at the jail by allocating use of the beds to the judges. He said that Judge Elum had 20 beds at one time and is now down to 8.

Pizzino asked if anyone has questions.

It was asked if this was a new tax or a renewal. Gonzalez explained there currently is no tax. He said there was a half percent that was imposed by the Commissioners that was repealed and taken off and there was a quarter percent that was passed by the public that the Commissioners let expire.

Pizzino opened the Public Hearing for Zoning Amendment 591-11 to re-zone from B-1 Suburban Office & Limited Business District to B-3 Commercial Business District, approximately 2.4 acres, located at 4205 and 4117 Whipple Avenue NW.

Poindexter said the request went to Stark County Regional Planning in September and they recommended denial. She said this went before the Zoning Commission on September 16 and they also recommended denial.

Pizzino asked if anyone would like to speak in favor of the zone change.

Todd Bosley of 8855 State Street, Louisville, Ohio 44641 said on April 1 his partner Marybeth Rose and he purchased the property from her parents. He said previous to that they had tried to find tenants for the property. He said they had more interest from small retailers looking for space but not much interest from anyone looking for office space. He presented a letter from Tim Barta who is the owner of LC Commons and supports the change.

Craig Smith, CPA, said he has been a tenant in the building for 14 years and said he has seen retail in there. He said he was speaking for most of the tenants and they would like to see the building fully tenanted and didn't see a problem with putting some retail in there. He said it seemed to fit in with the rest of the area. He pointed out that this building is still owned by the same family and in order to make this work the diversification of businesses would be a logical step.

Marybeth Rose of 116 47th, Canton said her parents are the builders of the properties and said they have had difficulty renting the space with the zoning being a B-1. She said if they had a B-3 classification it would be easier to rent.

Pizzino closed that portion of the hearing. He asked if anyone wanted to speak against the zoning change.

No one came forward. Pizzino closed that portion of the hearing.

Pizzino pointed out that the owners are not requesting anything that hasn't been done in the past and based on the surrounding area the buffer zone would still be there.

Pizzino moved and Burger seconded a motion to deny the recommendation of the Zoning Commission. 3-0 yes
