Pizzino asked Chief Neftzer if he would like to comment on the Police Department Personnel. Chief Neftzer said there were eight individuals that were interviewed and all the applicants served themselves and the department well in their preparation and the way they conducted themselves during the interviews. He said that all the candidates deserve to be recognized for their desire to make the Jackson Township Police Department the best it can be. Chief Neftzer asked for a motion to schedule second interviews with three individuals.
